

ECSO Arrests Wanted Fugitive

June 8, 2010

From Sheriff McDuffie

Effingham County Sheriff's Deputies have arrested a home invasion suspect who was wanted out of Chatham County late last night. The Savannah Chatham Metropolitan Police Department (SCMPD) contacted ECSO requesting assistance in locating Joshua Desmit who was wanted in connection with a home invasion.

Effingham County Sheriff's Deputies Located Joshua Desmit, 28, of Ellabell, at a residence in the 200 block of Saddlehorn Lane shortly before midnight. Desmit, who was wanted for several charges including aggravated assault, theft by receiving stolen property, burglary, and influencing a witness, was transported to the Effingham County Jail.