

DEPUTIES CAPTURE WANTED FUGITIVES

June 17, 2010

From: Sheriff McDuffie

Effingham County Sheriff's Deputies have arrested two wanted fugitives whom have been sought since May 27th. ECSO deputies who were assisted by the United States Marshals Service and Savannah Chatham Metropolitan Police Department located Dan Edwards, 40, of Guyton, and Robin Johnson, 39, of Guyton, at a residence in the 600 block of East 54th Street in Savannah after receiving a tip. Effingham County Deputies asked for the public's assistance in locating both individuals back on May 27th.

Both Suspects are wanted on numerous felony warrants out of Effingham County. Edwards and Johnson have extensive criminal histories and are believed to be involved in criminal activity in Effingham County.

Johnson and Edwards will be transported back to Effingham County to face their charges.

Once again, the community's help in dealing with bringing fugitives to justice has made a huge impact. Thank you!
